

ESWRA Special Interest Groups

The European Social Work Research Association (ESWRA)

- Founded in 2014
- Over 600 members from across more than 33 countries
- Annual conference for social work research

Special Interest groups (SIG)

- To enable ESWRA members to network and collaborate on specific issues

SIG Children's Rights in Practice

Aim to

- provide a forum to bring together international scholars, policy makers, research students, managers, and practitioners interested in issues related to children's rights in practice across various organizations (public and non-governmental)
- examine challenges and produce research led solutions
- explore the possible ways of applying children's rights across a range of practice settings

SIG Children's Rights in Practice

Scope

- Critically examine policy, practice, and theoretical developments within the field of children's rights in social work.
- Incorporate and explore within its scope research undertaken by various disciplines
- Offer an opportunity to engage in and promote cross-national, multi-disciplinary research
- Engage in scholarly debates and knowledge exchange among the various research and practice-based interested stakeholders
